Buller, Iwaasa take top titles at 2017 Alberta Provincial Racquetball Championships

April 11, 2017

Grande Prairie's Jeff Buller and Lethbridge's Alexis Iwaasa finished the provincial season on top of the podium, winning the Men's and Women's Open divisions at the 2017 Alberta Provincial Racquetball Championships this past weekend at the Glen Allan Recreation Complex in Sherwood Park. The tournament, which saw 66 participants aged 11 to 69 years old compete in 13 divisions, was the first Provincial Championship to be held in the Edmonton area since 2011.

Buller dominated his match from the first serve, defeating Edmonton's Devin Halko in two games (15-3, 15-6) to win his first provincial Open title. Iwaasa, who placed 3rd at the Junior World Championships in San Luis Potosí, Mexico this past fall, defended her Provincial Title against opponent Erin Geeraert of Calgary. After losing the first game to Iwaasa 11-15, Geeraert almost took the second when she tied it up at 16-16. Iwaasa was able to hold on however, winning the game 18-16 and taking home the match and title.

Other division Champions include:

- Men's A: Barry Bradshaw (Edmonton)
- Men's B/C: Cameron Brookwell (Calgary)
- Women's B/C: Jessican Walsh (Cold Lake)
- Men's Open Doubles: Manny Gregario (Edmonton) and Cam Bourque (St. Albert)
- Men's A Doubles: Brad Kelly (St. Albert) and Jon Semeniuk (Edmonton)
- Men's B/C Doubles: Cameron and Darryl Brookwell (Calgary)
- Men's 60+: Mike Biggs (Sherwood Park)
